

DEAR, SHAWNA BADER-BLAU! DEAR, SOLIDARITY CENTER!

We congratulate you, with the grand date - the 20th anniversary of the Solidarity Center.

Thanks to your organization, many trade union centers and workers really accepted and felt the real power of international solidarity.

Solidarity, which comes at the most important and crucial moment, when you already lose all hope for justice.

We, the leaders of Kazakhstan independent trade unions, three of whom are convicted, two are in custody, and the chairman of the ROP KNPRK, Larissa Kharkova, are deprived of the opportunity to share this joyous day with you.

But we look forward and believe in the solidarity and support of our brothers and sisters in the trade union movement!

We are sure that these complex tests will soon be over, and a new time will come - the time of victories.

We wish you, fruitful, active work and professional heights!

We see that your support helps overcome all obstacles to the creation of democratic institutions and the protection of workers.

Chairman,
ROP KNPRK
