

The Solidarity Center's headquarters in Washington, DC is offering in-person internships to undergraduate and graduate students and recent university/college graduates during the summer 2023.

Solidarity Center internships provide a great opportunity to work for social justice globally.

Interns are required to work full-time (35 hours per week), 5 days a week, for 10 weeks. Internships will be in-person at the Solidarity Center's headquarters office in Washington, DC. Full-time interns will receive a $6,000 stipend during their internship. Internships begin June and will conclude in August.

We are offering the following internships this summer in Washington, DC:

Africa Department

Climate Justice Program

Information Technology (IT)

Middle East and North Africa Department

Migration and Forced Labor Program

Program Coordination, Global Programs

Strategic Research and Campaign Development Department

Deadline: Applications are being accepted until the positions are filled.

To apply: To apply, submit a cover letter, resume, and writing sample (3-5 pages) to Solidarity Center Internship Coordinator, Nalishha Mehta, at nmehta@solidaritycenter.org.

Please indicate the specific internship you are applying for in your cover letter and submit all documents as Word or PDF attachments to the email. If you are applying for more than one internship, please submit a separate application (email) for each internship. Please no telephone calls. Due to capacity constraints, only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

The Solidarity Center is an equal employment opportunity employer that does not discriminate against any person employed or seeking employment based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national or ethnic origin, age, marital status, disability, veteran status or any other status protected under applicable law. Candidates from traditionally underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.